EZ Diary is an application that enables users to easily add detailed notes to their diary, and then find the diary later. You can add a diary entry by writing in the body of the diary, or simply typing the entry title. When entering the title, you can simply enter an entry title, or choose from a pre-made list of titles. These titles can be changed later. From there, you have the option to add sub-entries. When adding them, you can simply write in the body of the diary, or choose a body of text or a body of text and a subtitle. There is the option to add the sub-entry to the very top or at the bottom of the sub-entry. If you choose to add the sub-entry to the very top, then you will need to enter the date as well. You can then add additional sub-entries. There are over 80 different categories in the application. Once you have completed the creation of a diary, then you will be able to find it later by entering in the diary title or the category of the diary. The diary will show the last update to the diary. You will be able to search for the diary later, and you can add the diary to a collection in the application.
